A Leaf from the Private History of the Mexican War.

Gen Gideon J Pillow, who, it will be remembered was unfavorably not to say notoriously, known in connection with certain transactions in the Mexican war, has just turned up again in the political world, as one of the democratic candidates for United States Senator from Tennessee In offering himself for the position he publishes a long letter, in which he declares that the reports so injurious to his reputation as a soldier and an officer were without foundation, and circulated by certain letter writers from the army, instigated by jealousy of him on the part of other officers, as well as from enmity caused by his opposition to an alleged arrangement between Gen Scott and Santa Anna, by which the latter was to be bribed with a million of dollars to make peace

Something was intimated at the time about secret negotiations with Santa Anna, but nothing definite was known Gen Pillow now states them substantially as follows

President Polk it is known appointed Mr N P Trist to travel with the army as a sort of diplomatic agent to treat for peace when opportunity offered But Gen Pillow says that Mr Polk had so little confidence in him that he 'confidentially' associated him (Pillow) with Trist, and enjoined the latter to consult him in all his negotiations The General here assumes to himself an importance which would not then have been generally credited—but he says that he has the documents to show it He says he was in fact the confidential officer of the government—"on whom the President relied to guard the honor of the country"

On arriving at Puebla Gen Pillow says he was invited to a conference with Mr Trist and Gen Scott, in which it was stated that negotiations with Santa Anna had been opened, by the terms of which Santa Anna was to be paid cash in hand, earnest money $10 000, and our army was to march to the valley of Mexico and fight a battle before the city If we won, an armistice was to be granted, and commissioners appointed to treat for peace When peace should be concluded, Santa Anna was to receive one million dollars more

Trist said General Scott had furnished him the money to pay the $10 000, and had the means of raising the million. Pillow inquired of the President had authorized such a use of money and Trist said he had not Pillow then protested against it as dishonorable to the country He says Gen Scott justified the measure, both morally, and as in accordance with the usage of the governments and also of our own—and that he (Scott) cited as one instance of a similar use of money the fact that in the settlement of our Northeastern Boundary difficulties in 1839, $300 000 had been used by our Government, "how used (says Pillow) nobody knows, but the officers of government, until so to bribe the Maine press." This has been insinuated before—but we consider it a libel upon the press of Maine, and don't believe a word of it

Gen Pillow proceeds to say that he continued to oppose the arrangement, and that Trist and Gen Scott finally agreed to abandon it—But to his astonishment, he found that after the advancement of the army and the achievement of the splendid but bloody victories of Contreras and Cherubusco which laid the capital at our mercy, an armistice was granted to Santa Anna, and our troops withdrawn from the very gates of Mexico, when the city could have been captured at once with a small loss of life compared with that which did take place at its capture,some weeks afterwards — He says that he (Pillow) and Gen Worth both protested against the armistice but all to no purpose. He says that he then became satisfied that the arrangement with Santa Anna was going forward and immediately wrote to President Polk an account of the whole matter—and that he sent back an order to Gen. Scott to send Trist home, but that the order did not arrive till military operations had been resumed and the army had entered Mexico

Pillow says that up to this time Gen. Scott had always treated him with justice, and reposed great confidence in him as an officer, but that he was induced to hardness and injustice towards him by the misrepresentations of Trist "who, availing himself of Gen Scott's known jealousy of command and of my opposition to the armistice—coupled with the letters written from the army condemnatory of the armistice and laudatory of myself inflamed Gen Scott's feelings, and so maddened his sense of justice as to blind him in all his after conduct"

We do not understand from Gen. Pillow's letter that Santa Anna actually received anything more than the $10,000; but he took advantage of the armistice to recruit and concentrate his troops and was thus able to make another fight for the capitol, which cost our army a great loss of life.

The letter of Gen. Pillow furnishes considerable light upon the secret history of the war, although allowances must be made for the coloring which his own private feelings would be likely to give to the narrative.

A writer in the New York Sun says that Pillow tells but half the story,—intimating, (basely and falsely as we believe), that there was also bribery on the other side, and that Gen. Scott himself was not pecuniarily disinterested in the negotiations. This slanderous imputation is entirely irreconcilable with the honorable and patriotic character which this distinguished and able officer has always borne,—and it will not be believed by the American people.

The writer in the Sun further says that Santa Anna was sent back to Mexico by our government to prevent the royalist party from declaring the son of Louis Philippe, Emperor of Mexico, which would have complicated us with European governments—and that the peace to be made by Trist was to include our acquisition of the Tehuantepec route to the Pacific

SECOND DAY OF THE MUSTER.

At sunrise yesterday morning, a salute was fired at Camp Kent, and soon the troops were in motion.

After breakfast was served, the Companies were drilled in Battalion by Col Norcross, for an hour or two previous to the Review.

A stalwart band of mounted truckmen, under the command of Capt. Ezekiel Andrews, numbering sixty, now appeared upon the field, and were detailed to act as escort to the Reviewing officers—Major General Cushman and staff

One hundred volunteer soldiers, under the command of General Isaac Hodsdon, of Exeter, appeared upon the field and helped to swell the numbers on parade

A salute from the Artillery, announced the approach of the General and his staff, who were accompanied by Adjutant Gen Webster.

General Cushman then proceeded to review the troops, who afterwards went through various military evolutions in a satisfactory manner They were then dismissed for dinner.

We cannot speak of the cuisine of all the companies, but we had occasion to know that the Commissary of that gallant corps, the Bangor Light Infantry, attended to his duty in a thorough manner We believe that company allows nothing done by halves.

The Field Officers and the General and his staff, and several invited guests, among whom were Ex-Governor Kent, (in whose honor the camp was named) and General Isaac Hodsdon and others, occupied an hour after paying attention to the fare, in appropriate speeches, sentiments and pleasant conversation

At 2 o'clock the drum beat "to arms" and a short time was spent in Drill, after which Col. Jameson, Division Inspector, accompanied by Maj Pierce, inspected the troops A drizzling rain had set in, and preparations were soon made for breaking up camp.

Line was formed and Gen. Cushman addressed the officers and soldiers, complimenting them upon their soldierly appearance and gentlemanly deportment He then proceeded to urge the importance of a military organization, giving the reasons why such an organization should be encouraged and supported by Legislation and otherwise He remarked that the Constitution of the United States demanded of each State a thorough military organization and that the State of Maine had violated that Constitution as well as her own—that through the exertions of Adjutant General Webster, who he was pleased to say had honored them with his presence, with the assistance of other military gentlemen, the militia of Maine was trying again to come into favor, and he pledged himself to labor in the cause until the militia of Maine stood upon the firm and substantial basis which now characterized it. He closed by thanking the officers and soldiers for their attention, and introduced Adjutant General Webster

General Webster then addressed them for a few moments

He was pleased to meet with the officers and soldiers of the 9th Division. He had long labored, with many others, to bring the military of Maine up to its former standard, and he was rejoiced to hope that their labors would soon be crowned with success The gathering of to day showed to his mind that although they were few in numbers their hearts were strong He was pleased to see, at the head of the citizen company the brave and gallant Col Isaac Hodsdon, under whom they had all so often mustered The Legislature, he thought, had sadly neglected the Military, but he hoped the time would soon arrive when the people would demand of the Legislature such encouragement to the military as would be alike honorable to the soldier and the State

Since he had occupied the office of Adjutant General he had labored to bring about a reform in the militia law, and in this work he was pleased to say he had received the aid of military gentlemen in every section of the State He had taken the liberty of calling a convention of the military officers of the State, and he had no doubt that at that time a unity of action would be secured, and they should be able to devise some plan which would secure the passage of a law which would serve to encourage the soldier, and be also creditable to the State He believed that in this cause the volunteer militia of Maine would present an unbroken front, and would unite in asking such a law of the Legislature, and he had no doubt that it would be secured — He should be happy at all times, to receive from any gentleman, either officer or soldier, such suggestions as they might see fit to make in relation to the matter. A well organized militia was necessary, he thought, to the preservation of our country—and without it we have no guaranty for protection, from foreign invaders or domestic insurrections, of our gray haired fathers and mothers, or of our wives, our sweethearts, and our children.

He concluded by wishing them a happy return to the bosoms of their families and their friends. At the close, three hearty cheers were given. We are unable to give but an imperfect report of the speeches.

Col. Norcross then marched his troops from the camp ground, through several of our principal streets, to Main street, where he dismissed them with a brief and very appropriate speech, thanking them for their kind attention to his orders, &c. The Colonel and other officers have been indefatigable in their exertions to make the affair pass off pleasantly.

A brilliant Ball at Norombega Hall, last evening, wound up the enjoyments of the occasion The excellent music by Chandler's Band, added much to the interest.

The day was generally quiet, and devoid of striking incidents In the afternoon, Mr Stephen Rice, of Vassie, who severely if not fatally injured by the breaking down of a coach In coming down Court street, the wheel broke, and threw the coach over. He was on the top, and had his shoulder broken, and was injured internally. He was attended by Drs Morison and Field He has a family in Vassie.

Attentive correspondents from Aroostook County have furnished us the vote of twenty-two towns. Eben Woodbury, Republican, is elected Representative in the Houlton District, and the returns look well from other Districts. There is a prospect that the Republican County Ticket has prevailed, as it runs ahead of the Governor vote The entire vote is smaller than last year. The Democratic vote is 113 less, while the Republican is only 46 less

YORK COUNTY SENATORS It was considered certain in Port and yesterday that two at least of the Republican candidates for Senators in York are elected. It is thought that one democrat (Thomas K Lane) may be elected. At least the Argus says so It is to be hoped they will get one or two somewhere.

HUNG BY TELEGRAPH An English paper thinks it a "wonderful mercy that telegraphic communication has been kept up in Panjaub," (India,) and tells the following as one of the uses made of it, at the out break of the mutiny

A letter was intercepted at Pindee, which said, "Three natives of high rank (giving names) sat in council to morrow to decide what to do with the English" Telegraph said, "Let a spy attend and report." This was done, and in a few minutes after the outlines of the plot were before Lawrence. Telegraph again, "Hang all three." In fifteen minutes they were hung. Short work.

Hay and oats are abundant in Vermont.—There was a large breadth of land sowed to oats, and generally the yield is good. Hay is more plentiful than for several seasons, and it is selling for seven dollars per ton.

MESSRS FLEMING BROS, Pittsburgh, Pa — We learn from the Pittsburgh papers that this firm, which succeeded the late Jonathan Kidd in the wholesale Drug Business, and as manufacturers and venders of the celebrated "M'Lane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills," have recently made a partial change in their trade. They have gone out of the Drug Business, having disposed of their entire stock to Mr. B L. Fahnestock, formerly of the well known firm of S A. Fahnestock & Co, who succeeds Fleming Bros. at the old successful, and highly popular stand, corner of Wood and Fourth Streets This change has been deemed advisable by Fleming Brothers, owing to the great and constantly increasing demand for "M'Lane's Vermifuge and Liver Pills,"—the transcendent virtues of which are already co-extensive with the United States, as well as many foreign countries. The increased demand making it an absolute necessity to devote their exclusive attention and all of their energies to the manufacture and sale of these popular and valuable medicines, they have, for that purpose, removed to the large and capacious drug house, 24 Wood street, recently occupied by Messrs. Schoonmaker & Co, which has been arranged and adapted for their business, fitted up in the modern style and fine taste, where they will be found in the future, ready to fill all orders with promptness, and be pleased to receive calls from their numerous patrons and personal friends.—Steubenville Herald.

We hope none who have a taste for music will fail to attend their concerts Of Mr. Gartner's talents our citizens have had ample opportunity to judge His gentlemanly bearing,as well as his musical skill,has given him a high position among our citizens, and his name alone should be sufficient to fill Norombega We say to all, go

GAS FROM PEAT On Monday night our city was lighted by gas from peat obtained from Cape Elizabeth The experiment was entirely successful, and the light ran clear and brilliant The experiment was projected and carried into effect, through the enterprise of Edwin S Hovey, Esq, of this city, who is one of the proprietors of the bog from which the peat is taken, comprising about 300 acres, and will furnish peat sufficient to light the city for a century to come. It is near the city and can easily be transported by water to the gas works. This is the first experiment made on this continent to light a city from gas made from peat —Portland Advertiser

RAILROAD IMPROVEMENTS. The Portland and Kennebec Railroad Company are rapidly grading the line of the new track from Back Cove around Bramhall's Hill through Canal street to the Portland, Saco and Portsmouth Railroad station The arrangement with the city authorities gives this Company the right to use 16 feet in width on the southerly side of Canal street for the term of five years, upon condition that the Company make a good and passable carriage road between their track and the north line of the street, separated from the Railway by a suitable railing

The grant reserves the right to use the track for the York and Cumberland, and Atlantic and St Lawrence Railroad Companies, upon such terms as may be agreed upon either mutually or by a reference to disinterested parties —Portland Advertiser

BLOWING UP THE MAGAZINE AT DELHI.—The following interesting narrative, officially communicated to the government by Lieutenant Forrest, gives an accurate detail at last, with respect to the blowing up of the magazine at Delhi, on the outbreak of the mutiny Lieutenant Forrest shares with Lieutenant Willoughby the honor of this brave action.

"On the morning of the rebellion, Lieuts Willoughby and Forrest, and Sir C Metcalfe, were in the arsenal when they heard of the treachery of the native Sepoys, and they took active measures to check their advance upon the arsenal They closed and blocked up the gates, and placed six six-pounders to command the different entrances. These preparations had hardly been concluded when a body of mutineers appeared, and called on the defenders to open the gates. On their refusal, scaling ladders furnished by the King of Delhi, were brought up, and the rebels got on the walls and poured on the arsenal The guns now opened, and took effect with immense slaughter on the ranks of the enemy Four rounds were fired from each of the guns, Conductors Buckley and Scully distinguishing themselves in serving the pieces rapidly, the mutineers being by this time some hundreds in number, increasing in force, and keeping up a quick discharge of musketry. A train had been laid by Lieutenant Willoughby to the magazine, and the decisive moment soon approached, Lieutenant Forrest being wounded in the hand, and one of the conductors shot through the arm. The signal was given to fire the train, which was done coolly by conductor Scully The effect was terrific, the magazine blew up with a tremendous crash, the wall being blown out flat to the ground. The explosion killed upwards of a thousand of the mutineers, and enabled Lieutenants Willoughby, Forest, and more than half of the European defenders of the place to fly together, blackened and singed, to the Lahore gate, from whence Lieutenant Forest escaped in safety to Meerut. Lieutenant Willoughby was less fortunate, and is now said to have been killed on his way to Umballah.

DISCOURAGING IF TRUE. It is leaking out, one way and another, that although the electricians managed to get shocks through the 300 miles of wire they paid out in the Atlantic, yet the electric shocks grew feebler and feebler; and as Professor Morse says, the case requires "attentive investigation" In short the difficulties about the Atlantic cable are greater than the most knowings ones are willing to confess —Port. Adv.

NEW YORK MONEY MARKET, Tuesday, Sept. 15. There is no diminution of the pressure among borrowers, but as the supply of capital is a little more abundant there is a prospect that the market will work a little easier, and the stringency by gradually relaxed.

AN ASCENSION BY MR. WISE We have the following description of Mr. Wise's latest balloon ascension, given by a Pennsylvania paper:

We have been favored with a short description of the aerial tour of John Wise Esq, who made a balloon ascension at Mauch Chunk, on the 3d inst He was in the air more than three hours He came down on the mountain, but was driven off by an old mountaineer, who swore he "would burn him and the 'tarnal mashean up, and set the dogs on him bes'les, if he didn't clear out with the cussed monster" Mr Wise, fearing that he would put his threat in execution, did clear out with his "'tarnal mashean," and sailed about an hour more trying to get over Stroudsbourg, but succeeded beyond his most sanguine expectation, for he got among the clouds and instead of getting directly over Stroudsburg he passed it by ten miles and landed near the Delaware, fifty miles from Mauch Chunk, in a field where a man was ploughing with a yoke of oxen. The man and oxen seeing the "'tarnal thing,' couldn't tell what it was, and fled in terror, leaving Mr Wise monarch of all he surveyed Assistance was procured, and the aeronaut was enabled to secure his balloon safely

The Steamship Central America Foundered—Four Hundred and Forty Lives Lost!

CHARLESTON, Sept. 17.

The steamship Thomas Swann, from New York, has arrived here, and reports having spoken, on the 15th inst., about 16 miles north of Cape Hatteras, the Norwegian bark Eloise, which had on board forty passengers of the steamship Central America, who stated that the Central America foundered on the 12th inst., with 500 passengers on board, only sixty of whom were saved. Nothing is mentioned concerning the specie.

The steamer Central America was well protected against accidents of all kinds, and amply provided with means of safety in case of disaster. She had on board plenty of life preservers and means for the instantaneous construction of rafts, and also two of Worthington's patent steam pumps, and two or three force pumps for use in case of fire. Her specie, about $1,500,000, is insured principally in London.

From Washington.

WASHINGTON, 17th.

The President has signed the proclamation for the sale of about 2,500,000 acres of public lands in California, and upwards of 450,000 acres in Missouri, and in the unlocated tracts in the Sioux half breed reservation on Lake Pepin, Minnesota. The sales in California will take place in May, and in Missouri and Minnesota in March next.

Despatches have been received from Commodore Parker, relative to the alleged complication of Consul Keenan, in the British hostilities at Canton. The latter vindicates himself by saying that he went thither in the discharge of his official duties, and instead of carrying the American flag at the head of the forces, he merely dispossessed a seamen of the sloop Levant, of the flag, which the sailor had wrapped around himself.

There is reason to believe that the Nicaraguan Minister will not again present himself for official recognition, until after the new government of Nicaragua shall have been installed.

Various Items.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.

Ullman has effected an engagement with Madame Lagrange, who will appear at the Academy, in conjunction with Prezzolini.

Steamer Kangaroo sailed at noon for Liverpool, with 25 passengers.

The President of the Bank of Columbia, says the city denies that the bills of that bank are discredited at Charleston.

PROVIDENCE, 17th.

The Bank of South County was enjoined today. Dusha R Potter is appointed receiver. The private property of the stockholders is holden for the debts of the bank, which will doubtless be paid in full.

New York Markets.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.

Freights to Liverpool easier—Cotton 5-32d; flour 1s 6d, grain 5½ a 6¾d in bulk.

BILLS NOT RECEIVED.—Bills of Moussam and Sanford Banks are not received at the Metropolitan Bank.

MURDER ON BOARD A PORTLAND VESSEL.—The men arrested for the murder on board the Albion Cooper, are a Frenchman and a negro. The boy states that they murdered Capt Humphreys, the chief mate and three seamen. The murderers are in the hands of the American Consul at Havana. The Albion Cooper sailed from Portland for Cardenas.—Tel to News.

KANSAS. The Lawrence Herald of Freedom of the 5th inst. reports that another invasion from Missourians may be expected at the October election. The Herald says:

"How Mr. Stewart, a gentleman of intelligence and veracity, who has been travelling through the border counties of Missouri, and has returned from a trip of considerable length in that direction, says that he heard residences everywhere on his route, conclusive to him that preparations are again making in Missouri to invade Kansas in October, with the view of participating in our Territorial elections. If this is the design, unless Gov Walker takes efficient means to preserve the purity of the ballot-box, the people of Kansas will. We have no threats or bluster, but the people of Missouri must be taught that they have interfered in our elections for the last time. Unless Gov. Walker gives the people full assurance that the polls shall be fully protected in October, we hope the people will continue to prepare themselves for a warm reception of the invaders."

CAPE RACE LIGHT. A TOLL UPON VESSELS. The St John's New Brunswicker says:

The Light House on Cape Race, Newfoundland, having been completed, an order of Her Majesty in Council has been issued authorising the levying of a toll on all steamers or sailing vessels passing or deriving benefit from the said Light. The toll is fixed at one-sixteenth of a penny per ton, and is to be collected from all vessels sailing from any port in the United Kingdom, or upon any transatlantic voyage, and from all vessels arriving at any port in the North American Colonies from the United Kingdom, or after any transatlantic voyage, or from any sailing ships or steamers sailing from New York or any ports in the United States north of New York for the United Kingdom, or for any vessels sailing from the United Kingdom to any port in the United States north of New York.

But no such dues shall be levied in any case unless the Legislative authority of the Colony has, by address to the Crown, or by an act of ordinance, duly passed, signified its assent, that the same ought to be levied within such Colony

HALL'S
New Stump Machine!

I HAVE INVENTED an improved STUMP PULLER, which two men can carry about the field from one stump to another, and draw the largest pine stumps out of the ground by hand power, without oxen, horses, ropes or blocks, and without digging round

This is a great improvement on Stump Machines, as two men will take up a common stump in about two minutes, and dispenses with any team, and can be worked when the ground is soft in the spring, and does not break up the grass held in by the old process of a heavy team.

This Machine is entirely different from any ever used before, comes cheaper, and is very durable Price $50. I have them now on hand and for sale at my mill in Brewer, Me. W. HALL.

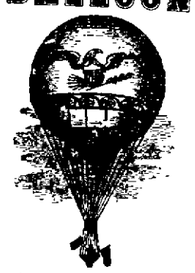
BALLOON



A GRAND ASCENSION

Will take place on Summer St., in BANGOR, on September 30th,
At 2 o'clock P. M.

MR WISE is the most celebrated and successful Æronaut in this country, and the intention is to make this one of the most curious and splendid Exhibitions of the kind that has ever taken place in this State. The most beautiful and novel part of the exhibition will be in the inflating and starting the Balloon, which will occupy about two hours, and take place inside of an enclosure made for that purpose, where comfortable seats will be provided for all. This is the Balloon Old America, one of the finest in the country, and handsomely decorated, which will make the scene one of great novelty and beauty, and at the same time show to the citizens of Bangor one of the greatest curiosities in the triumph of Science and Art in the navigation of the atmosphere.

There is one gentleman and one lady who have engaged a passage for this aerial flight—and should the weather be suitable it is confidently expected to have a pony accompany the Balloon.

Alpine Hair Balm,
—FOR—
Restoring Gray Hair to its Original Color

WARRANTED to cure Baldness, Scurf, Dandruff, Itching, and all diseases of the skin. This Balm gives the scalp a new and healthy action; restores the coloring matter to the roots of the Hair, which passes through the Hair and gives it a natural color without the use of Hair Dye.

Hundreds of preparations have been introduced, pretending to preserve the Hair and keep it from falling off, composed of Oils, Alcohol, and other deleterious materials, and all to no use. Hair dyes have been introduced that do not give the use. This Balm is not a Dye. Knowing that a preparation was needed to do what was required for the Hair, the proprietor was induced to experiment until he could obtain an article that would be the exact remedy and after seven years trial has perfected this Balm. It is soothing and emollient, allays all irritation of the scalp, thereby stopping that troublesome itching. It cures Dandruff, and Scurf, and when the hair has turned gray it will bring it back to its original color, be it Black, Brown or Auburn. It makes the Hair soft and glossy, prevents it from falling off as will be seen upon using this Balm for only a few days—life will be given to the roots of the Hair, and growth will soon appear. Growth does not take place at the end of the Hair, as will be seen in persons who have had their hair dyed. If you examine gray hair that has been colored for a week, you will find, towards the roots, that the hair has come out gray, hence it is necessary to have the fluid at the roots of the hair healthy, that the whole hair may be a natural color Each hair has a root in the skin, and is of itself a hollow, gray tube, through which there is a constant circulation of the pigment from the root. When this pigment or coloring matter dies out, it leaves the hair hollow, and it becomes gray To invent a Balm that would produce this pigment has become the study of the proprietor. The discovery of the Alpine Hair Balm will do it It will bring the hair to its natural color by making anew the coloring matter in the roots of the hair.

It is a mistaken notion that oil or grease will restore the hair, as nothing can be more injurious. The Alpine Hair Balm will restore the skin and save the hair of those who have been sick with fever or any other disease

LINCOLN'S WATER PROOF BLACKING,

AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry and you will seldom need a Physician

IS it not a truth that when the feet are often wet, it is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption? It is a truth that when leather is often wet and dried, it soon becomes hard, stiff, and cracks but when it is water proof this is remedied By the application of this preservative, it remains soft and entirely impervious to water

After being engaged for 20 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branches and being often troubled with wet feet myself, I was led to experimenting on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water proof, but at the same time extremely injurious to the leather At last by a chemical process, I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the astringent properties with which leather is tanned It will not only make leather water proof, but it likewise softens the leather and it will

Positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years and a large part of that time have worked in a wet Tannery, with my boots constantly in water, and have not had my feet wet during that time I can therefore in all confidence, recommend it to the public as the best article in the market
